Nazis Like Collegians Studying Indictments

NURNBERG, Oct. 20.—(AP)—The Nazi leaders who face trial as war criminals were at dawn this morning and looked like collegians cramming for final examinations as they dug into their indictments.

"That's the most stuporous group I ever saw," one guard commented.

The top-ranking Nazis read even during breakfast. As there are no electric lights in their cells, and since the indictments were served late yesterday, this was the first chance they had to study the charges.

Only Field Marshal Goering seemed to have a completely detached attitude as he stretched out on his bed in what appeared to be deep thought. Asked if he had made any statement regarding his counsel, the former Luftwaffe chief replied: "I'll think it over a while."

"I don't see how you can make law after things have been done," protested Dr. Robert Ley, former head of the German labor front.

"Even God had made the Ten Commandments and judged people by them afterwards."

From CP, AP and British UP Dispatches. HEADQUARTERS ALLIED ARMY OF OCCUPATION, TOKYO, Oct. 20.—The order to dissolve Japan's family-controlled monopolies issued by General Douglas MacArthur is the big headache of the new government, and there is a tendency on the part of Premier Shidehara and his cabinet to "stall off" any action at the present time.

PURLEY, Surrey, England, Oct. 20.—(CP)—Three Canadians were killed and four others, including three Canadian fliers, injured when an RAF Transport Command Dakota crashed yesterday on a house in the south London suburb.

The plane with a crew of seven was taking off from Croydon airport for its base in Hampshire when the engine apparently failed. It glided for a time, then smashed into the house. There were no civilian casualties as the building was unoccupied at the time.

The injured were taken to Purley hospital.

Names of the Canadians were withheld pending notification of their next-of-kin.

HAMBURG, Germany, Oct. 20.—(Reuters)—

Capt. Heinz Eck and his subordinate Lieut. August Hoffman today were sentenced to death by shooting by a British military court here trying them on charges of killing survivors of the Greek steamer Pelagos which their submarine sank in the south Atlantic in March, 1944.

Naval Surgeon Walter Pfenning also sentenced to die.

Capt. Hans Richard Lenz was sentenced to life imprisonment and Leading Seaman Schneider, who tried to commit suicide in his cell last night, was given 15 years imprisonment.

The prisoners maintained they had followed the orders of their commander, Heinz Eck, who ordered the crew to fire on the wreckage to which survivors were clinging. Counsel for the commander claimed he had attempted only to sink the debris so as to leave no trace of the submarine's activities.

The present allowances for sick time and vacation will remain in effect.

The board members also agreed to have all patients entering the hospital undergo X-ray examinations for tuberculosis. The examinations will be provided free of charge to all patients and will be shared by the Alberta Tuberculosis Association and hospital.

The hospital board limited its expenses in the survey to $300 a month.

Packinghouse Workers Ready For Walk-Out

Preparations to strike in the event demands of the packinghouse workers are defeated at the mediation party under chairmanship of Mr. Justice S. J. Roberts at Winnipeg next Wednesday, is the reason organizers and strike voters are being in advance. John Lenglet, local organizer for the United Packinghouse Workers of America (UPWA), said today.

The UPWA, which has 14 in favor of strike action, with 35 opposed but 100 eligible to vote, was approximately 35, Mr. Lenglet said.

Packinghouse workers are organized in the Packinghouse Workers' Union (P.W.U.) and recently there has been a movement among this group toward joining with the UPWA.

Churchill Fears Gov't. by Party To Hurt Nation

LONDON, Oct. 20.—(Reuters)—Winston Churchill today expressed anxiety that Britain's return to party government might lead to serious divisions in the British people.

He was speaking at a ceremony where he received the honorary freedom of the borough of Walsall and Woodville in the West Midlands.

He said that the British was a divided people.

"It would indeed be grievous if the rift between us deepened and widened until it became a gulf," he said.

Revolution

government forces in the interior to cease resistance.

Belmont announced last night from the balcony of the war ministry that his party would support the military revolution and pledged free elections as soon as arrangements could be made.

Today he said "the fact that the army is in effect but civil liberties would be restored as soon as the last possibility of further disorders was removed."

REPORTS ON MEDIA

Media himself was reported variously a prisoner of the revolution, in refuge at the British embassy, and in flight toward the interior with a force of loyal soldiers. Nobel leaders had vowed he would be captured "dead or alive."

Leaders of the revolution, all young army officers, said they had overthrown the military clique which had ruled Venezuela for 50 years and would substitute "a real democracy, in the United States manner."

A report from Bogota said that the Tropic army garrison had remained loyal to Medina and was mobilizing to march on Caracas and wipe out the military rebels. However, Tachira, 100 miles west of the capital, is separated from it by the Andes. There are no roads between the two cities.

CRUSH RESISTANCE

The revolutionaries crushed the last distant resistance in Caracas yesterday with plans and tanks. The San Carlos garrison, the only principal military centre, surrendered after nearly three hours of continuous air strafing.

Within an hour, the Ambrosio Plaza barracks and central police headquarters capitulated and all Caracas was under control of the revolutionaries. Machine-guns were set up at the strategic points against the possibility of a counter-coup.

Casualties in Caracas during the 24-hour revolt were estimated at 200 dead and wounded.

Some 200 prominent government officials under Medina were held by the rebels as hostages.

ALL YOUNG OFFICERS

Officers who led the revolution all were under 35 years of age and at a rank of major or less. They said they wanted to end presidents to be a civilian, elected by universal secret ballot, elected by universal secret ballot, elected by universal secret ballot.

At present, the people elect only municipal councils. The councils appoint regional governors and senators in the national congress, which in turn elects the president. PLAN WAR TRIALS

Measures were taken for the first of 2,000 Japanese on charges including stockpiling armaments are expected to begin within the next 60 days.

Among those already in custody are such well publicized persons as Hiroko Togo, Japanese premier when the war in the Pacific began, members of his cabinet, and such war leaders as Lt. Gen. Masaharu Arima, commander of the Japanese forces on Bataan.

The trials will be public. They will be held in the largest available hall in the city, possibly in the city hall.

ACTS ON PROFITERS
Gen. MacArthur's stamped down on black market profiteers today with an order forbidding American servicemen and civilians alike to read about any funds except "legitimate pay allowances."

A black market has sprung up in Tokyo on American food, candy, blankets and other scarce items obtained from American soldiers. When the military market operated in Europe, American soldiers for a time sent back to the United States more money than they earned.

MacArthur's order provides that American soldiers in exchange for Japanese yen for United States goods, must submit a certificate of exchange to a responsible personnel officer.

MUST KNOW SOURCE
The certificate must state that the issuing officer has personal knowledge that the funds... were obtained as payment allowances from a finance officer of the U.S. Army and not from black market operations, sale of property or other illicit source.

RAIL LINES BUSY
Meanwhile, an official Japanese government report to Allied forces revealed that the Japanese national railway still are capable of carrying more passengers and freight than ever.

Another meeting has been called for Friday, Oct. 26 to be held in the same place. It is hoped that there will be a large enough turnout to discuss operation of the tank this winter, as well as other matters of importance to the district.

The executive group all those in the district are expected to attend and show some community spirit.

On the first U.S. coast to coast mail flights, mail was carried in planes by day and train by night.

Unanimous Vote Charter of United Nations Gets Parliament Approval

By FRANK FLAHERTY

OTTAWA, Oct. 20.—(CP)—Canada last night was added to the list of countries ratifying the United Nations charter when the Commons unanimously passed the ratifying resolution without a recorded vote.

There were no dissenting voices and general applause broke out as Speaker Gaspard Fauteux declared it carried.

Antiquated taxation methods, failure to relieve low income taxpayers and failure to curtail extravagant expenditures were the main points of criticism directed at the government earlier Friday by the opposition, chief financial critic for the Progressive Conservative party, leading off in the budget debate. Traditionally one of the major de-bates of every parliamentary session, Mr. Macdonnell, premier of the province, moved an amendment to Finance Minister's policy to put the house into committee on the budget resolutions. The amendment has the effect of a want of confidence motion.

STATED REGRETS

The amendment would declare the house's regret that

1. No effective plan has been proposed to ensure full production and employment.

2. No satisfactory policy has been announced for the elimination of extravagant governmental expenditures.

3. No adequate provision has been made for the immediate relief of the people in the lower income brackets from excessive taxation.

After Mr. Macdonnell finished his speech the budget debate was adjourned by M. J. Caldwell, CCF leader, and the house turned to discussion of a resolution asking adoption of the United Nations charter drawn up by the Finance Minister.

Justice Minister St. Laurent finished the charter debate by declaring his belief in the majority, if not the unanimity of the people with Canada to be a member of this United Nations organization and to do whatever may be required to be a full partner.

ACTED FOR PREMIER

Piloting the charter through the house was Mr. St. Laurent's first parliamentary job in his capacity as acting secretary of state for external affairs, representing Prime Minister Mackenzie King, who is in London.

He was one of the two signers of the charter for Canada and supporting him in the house were two other delegates to the San Francisco conference, Gordon Graydon (C-Per) and M. J. Caldwell, CCF leader.

The minister said in a debate characterized by a "high plane of humanitarian idealism and also stern realism" members had shown no divergence of view of the desirability and practicability of an international organization based on justice and fair dealing.

Everyone agrees there are things in the charter which we deplore," he said, "and which we hope will not remain there for all time."

BETTER UNDERSTANDING

The solemn undertakings given by the signing nations, however, would make for better understanding and better living conditions throughout the world if those who spoke and acted for the nations listened to the real voices of the people of the nations.

Answering a question from Mr. Graydon the minister said he doubted if the military agreements under which the security council would be created, in parliament at the next session. That would be desirable but the organization would not likely be sufficiently advanced.

Some members had regretted that neutral nations were not represented at San Francisco. This, said Mr. St. Laurent, might be unforing Union, John W. Badowsky, packing plant employee, and number of the United Packing House Workers of America, William Fletcher, seaman, and member of the United Packing House Workers of America, and Mrs. E. S. Haynes, housewife.

The meeting, which was attended by about 200 members and supporters of the Civic Democratic Alliance, was under the chairmanship of A. M. Allen, provincial chairman of the alliance.

It was decided that the alliance should be a permanent organization, and that its elected members should be called on to make periodic reports in general meetings of the membership.

The alliance will be established to work on civic reform, and for observation of city council and school board meetings.

The objectives of the alliance were stated to be the selection by democratic convention of a slate of worthy representatives of the people of Edmonton to represent as possible of all classes and all sections of progressive opinion, and to campaign for the realization of its platform."

BORN IN ONTARIO
Ald. Ainlay was born at Brussels, Huron County, Ont., and taught in Ontario schools for four years before coming west. After arriving in Alberta he managed a town site in southern Alberta, and arrived in Edmonton in 1912, where he has been a teacher.

He graduated from the University of Alberta and returned to teaching. He has been on the staff of the Edmonton public school board for 21 years as a teacher.

Ald. Ainlay was first elected to the city council in 1921 and served for four years. He was again elected in the 1941 election, and is one of the five retiring aldermen this year.

He has served on all committees of the city council, and also on the city health board, the Edmonton Exhibition Association, and the hospital board.

He was instrumental in getting the city council to establish the Recreation Commission and is vice-president of the commission. He has served as president of many sports organizations in the city, and is a keenly interested in recreations of all kinds for both young and old.

He has been active in football and soccer football, being a member of teams playing in city leagues.

VOICES THANKS
In accepting the nomination Ald. Ainlay said he was deeply conscious of the honor done him, and the trust accorded him by the members of the alliance. He said that his many years of service as alderman, and on the many civic boards would be useful. He said he would appreciate the opportunity of finishing his work in civic affairs as mayor.

Ald. Ainlay said he favored an aggressive road construction policy, and if necessary a new taxation plan to carry it out. Edmonton, he said, were in the horse-and-buggy stage, and no other modern city would tolerate them.

He favored also the modernization of garbage collection, and the elimination of all city dumps. He said the city needed a well planned and extensive program of city beautification to develop the natural beauty with which Edmonton is endowed.

The passing on of some benefit to utilities profits in lower rates to consumers was favored also by Ald. Ainlay. He said non-resident property owners do not contribute to the salaries of the utilities and therefore should not benefit by them.

The resulting jargon goes into a "de-scrambler" at the point of reception. There it passes into a receiver and appears, readily on a teletype receiver.

Used by Roosevelt Mystery Railway Car Dream of Radio Fans

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—(AP)—The world's most secret railway car—President Roosevelt ran a large part of his mystery through the equipment—gave up his mystery today.

The converted passenger-and-luggage coach, filled with the most modern radio, telegraph and telephone equipment, went along whenever the late Mr. Roosevelt made a train trip and now goes with President Truman.

The coach was dispatched Friday at Union Station here by the White House signal detachment which after three years of experimentation calls it the most modern and complete mobile communications setup in the world.

From No. 181, the name, by which the coach has been called by those who know about it ever since it was borrowed from the Baltimore and Annapolis railroad, the president can:

1. Telephone to any house or to any radio-telephone equipped automobile or other vehicle in the United States.

2. Carry on a radio telephone conversation — in virtually unbreakable code — around the world at a rate of 100 words a minute.

3. Send and receive messages to and from ships at sea. A radio-telephone equipped automobile or other vehicle in the United States.

New Gas Radiant And Microphone Reported Stolen

Add to this week's list of unusual stolen articles, a gas radiant and a microphone.

Police Saturday were investigating the theft on a new gas radiant from a house under construction at 1039 114 street, following a complaint made by P. N. Strachan, superintendent of maintenance at the Edmonton building inspector's department.

James Wallis, local labor official, said police that a $25 microphone had been stolen from the Labor Temple, 1006 204 street, during the week.

"I would have been dead, too, my gut, hadn't been to work again," Sawyer said the black-haired captive apparently attempted to shoot himself while the police were in under the direction of the young woman who said he raped her twice, but his 32-calibre automatic missed her on the front and while the body lay on the rear floorboards.

Miss Weidell, who came here recently from Atlantic City, N.J., was being detained as a material witness. She is a former waitress, she reported Dr. Sawyer killed his wife while she watched and later raped her on the front and while the body lay on the rear floorboards.

Romance of Our Hymns

Through Thomas a hymn is told and wrote more than fourteen hymns after Christ's last words of "I am with you" is almost as much as the hymn itself. It is now generally known that the hymn "The Church's Hymn Book" was written by Thomas a Kempis, and given a picture of the history, transport and joyful life amid his hymns.

By KATHLEEN BLANCHARD

Thomas a Kempis was born Thomas Hemmerich in the town of Kempen lying between the Meuse and the Rhine (near Düsseldorf). His parents were peasants, his mother conducting a small inn. He was very young from all over the town. By the time Thomas was twelve his father died and he was sent to the convent school of Mount St. Agnes, near Deventer.

Thomas was fortunate to have been promoted early to the school classes of the renowned teacher, Florentius Radewijck, where, after the fashion of the age—the name of Hemmerich was forgotten, he was "Thomas from Kempen". This splendid school had been founded by a wealthy merchant, who with his beloved teacher became his saintly ideal and hero.

Thomas had a distinctive personality. He liked quiet corners and books away from others. He had dreams and visions of another world, which he confided to his master, Florentius, who told him that a monk's life was his best service and advised him to join the Augustinian order.

By this time his brother John was prior of Mount St. Agnes. He decided to go there, and was received in 1380. Eight years afterwards he took the vows. This particular convent was quite poor and those of the monks could, had to earn money by copying missals, letters, illuminating script, etc. Thomas was known to be very good at this work. He became the most active of writers, being the author of a number of books, and a famous M.S. Bible. One of a number of his letters, tracts and words, two numbers to mention here.

Of his two hymns in our book, the one printed below was translated by Canon Benjamin Webb in 1864. The hymn opens in depth of feeling, in beautiful language, and contains a narrative story, a fashion of the age.

This hymn is printed by request, and the account of Thomas a Kempis long and industrious and fruitful life in the monastery will be continued in next Saturday's Romance of Our Hymns, when another Thomas a Kempis hymn will be presented.

O love, how deep! how broad! how high!
It fills the heart with ecstasy,
That God, the Son of God, should take
Our mortal form for mortal sake.

He sent us angels to our aid,
Of higher or of lower grade,
Nurtured the babe of human frame
Himself, and to the last word came.

For us He bled, and bled and bled,
His holy feet, and bled and bled,
For us temptation sharp He bore,
For us the tempter overthrew.

For us He prayed, for us He taught,
By words, and signs, and actions,
Still seeking not Himself, but us,
For us He bled, and bled and bled.

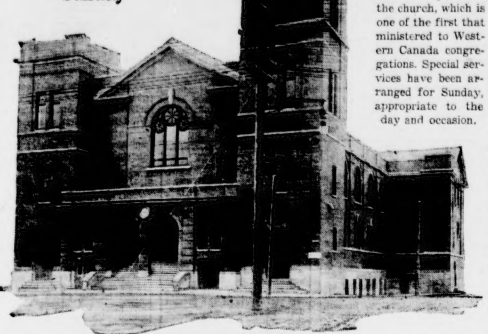

For us He rose from death again,
For us He went on high to reign,
For us He sent His spirit here,
To guide, to strengthen, and to cheer.

To Him whose boundless love has won
Salvation for us through His Son,
To God the Father, glory be,
Both now and through eternity.

Special Services on Sunday McDougall Church to Observe 74th Anniversary of Founding

McDougall United Church, in the province, on Sunday will celebrate the 74th anniversary of its founding.

Special anniversary services will be held in the morning and evening in honor of the occasion, and the Rev. George Dorsey, B.A., D.D., of Toronto, will be guest minister at both services.

McDougall church was first called "Mother Church of Merchants" and was the first Protestant church in the city of Edmonton. It was founded in the area of the North West Territories, which was later organized as the province of Alberta.

FIRST ARRIVALS
In 1871 the Rev. George Milward McDougall came to Edmonton and with a few representatives of the Hudson's Bay Company, represented the church on the grounds occupied which has grown up here.

On the banks of the Saskatchewan river at that time inhabited by Indians, he envisioned a future great city and built his first church overlooking the valley. The present church building stands on the site of the first church, in the heart of the community which the pioneer missionary founded.

The original church building has been renovated and erected as a memorial to the United Church of Canada, Women's Missionary Society and the Canadian Women's Society, which are now housed in McDougall United Church at 230 St. on Tuesday, Oct. 21.

The original church building will be addressed by Mrs. Roy Kay, general secretary of the organization, in his address of welcome to the delegates assembled.

TO EXPLAIN WORK
Her experiences in Ceylon and the type of work she will be doing are expected to be explained to the delegates by the Rev. A. H. Wilkinson, M.A., B.D., of the British and Foreign Bible Society.

Report of the meeting of the Dominion Board of the United Church of Canada will be presented by Mrs. J. H. D. Dorey, who will be guest minister at the anniversary service.

Protest Against Bishop of London

Several hundred persons milled about the entrance of St. Paul's Cathedral in London recently in a demonstration against the enthronement of Dr. J. W. C. Wand as Anglican Bishop of London.

The demonstration was organized by the National Union of Protestants, whose director, the Rev. W. St. Clair Taylor, spoke to the assembled crowd through a loud speaker and protested "Roman Catholicism in our Protestant Church of England, where it is illegal."

Many in the throng carried banners bearing such inscriptions as "Shall Priests Our Laws Defy?" Others held the names of Protestant martyrs.

On the arrival of the Lord Mayor of London, and a corps of sheriffs, demonstrations stood on the cathedral steps and sang, "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus."

Within the cathedral, the enthronement ceremony proceeded without incident.

British Occupation Of Reich Praised

Of the four Allied zones of occupation in Germany, the best situation prevails in areas controlled by the British, it was reported in London by the Rev. Stuart Herman, former pastor of the American Church in Berlin, and now a staff member of the World Council of Churches at Geneva, Switzerland.

Mr. Herman from the continent to address the British Council of Churches here. He recently covered 3,000 miles in three weeks of traveling throughout Germany in an army jeep.

Mr. Herman rated the American zone as second best, the French third, and the Russian fourth. In the British zone, parts of which had been seriously damaged by the Germans, some communications have been restored and postal facilities are available, Mr. Herman said.

Jewish Children

The Jewish government has decreed that the future of Jewish children adopted by Dutch citizens during the German occupation of the Netherlands must be finally decided by the War Guardianship Committee.

The committee was set up to care for children orphaned by the war and consists of fourteen Christians and twelve Jews.

There are 4,000 Jewish children in Christian homes throughout Holland and the government's decree makes it necessary to submit a formal statement to the committee on each adoption.

Gaye Stewart "Looks Cood"
At Toronto Training Camp

By FRASER MACDOUGALL
OWEN SOUND, Ont., Oct. 20.—(CP)—Veterans and rookies shared the spotlight Friday as the Toronto Maple Leafs continued the rigorous training grind in preparation for the opening of the National Hockey League season.

At the afternoon workout Gaye Stewart began to show signs of the offensive punch and all round hockey skill which won the rookie award and the Calder trophy for him in his only full season in professional hockey. Bigger and stronger than when he joined the Canadian navy after the end of the 1942-43 season, the lakehead product tallied three goals, two of them in rapid sequence on clever plays.

Two forward lines and one defense pair teamed up as they did on last year's Stanley Cup team. Gus Bodnar centred veterans Sweeney Schreiner and Lorne Carr. Tom Kennedy was flanked by Ben Davidson and Mel Hill. Big Baise Pratt and Elwyn Morris teamed up on defense. Both Bodnar and Kennedy were particularly effective. They opposed each other during the drills.

One particularly effective rookie forward line—destined for the Pittsburgh team in the American Hockey League—had Doug McMurphy, the Winnipeg boy who played with St. Catharines last season, at centre ice with Joe Kinkor from St. Joe, Minn. and Jack Irvine from Winnipeg on the wings.

Coach Hal Day said that the final decision on what part of his wealth of material will serve with the Toronto team this winter will come after three blue-white exhibition games scheduled for next week at

Junior Football
Clarke Stadium
This Afternoon

West End Tornados left Calgary this morning confident of overwhelming the Edmonton Canadians at the Clarke Stadium this afternoon in the first of a two-game total-point series for the provincial junior football title. Starting time is 2 o'clock.

No doubt the southerners, who come with a good record as champions in their own league, will be favorites to down the Canucks, but the Edmontonians don't seem worried and say they will go in fighting right from the kick-off.

Recent addition of Bob Causgrove, Jim Fleming, in the backfield, and Normie Swail on line should bolster their chances.

Cocaches Jim Pyper and Gordon Huxley put their charges through a light run-up drill last night under the lights, and both announced they will go in good and with no injuries.

Wiseman Is Named
To Coach Canucks

MOOSE JAW, Oct. 20.—(CP)—Moose Jaw Canucks, 1944-45 western junior hockey champions, have chosen Reginald Eddie Wiseman as coach for this season, club president George Vogan announced Friday.

Wiseman succeeds Buzz Boll, former national hockey league full-back, who resigned because of difficulty in finding accommodation for his family here. Boll has returned to his Pillmer, Sask., home.

Wiseman played for Detroit Red Wings, New York Americans and Boston Bruins before enlisting in the RCAF and has been putting Canucks through their paces for the last week.

Canucks are slated to play two exhibition games at Edmonton against the Canadians next Thursday and Saturday.

This application may be reported to the National War Finance Committee.

Victory Loan Salesman (if not) registered no.

$1,500,000,000 IS NEEDED

Previous loans have supplied funds for war expenses for six months. After the 9th Victory Loan there will not be another Victory Loan for a whole year. Every Victory Loan to date has passed its objective. Let's make this the most successful loan yet.

ON MONDAY MORNING a great wave of Victory Loan enthusiasm will sweep across Canada. For this time, as we enter the Victory Loan period, the dark shadows of war have melted away; the danger to our loved ones is past. Victory is ours, and the 9th Victory Loan is a Victory Loan indeed. So let us make this loan a loan of rejoicing and thanksgiving.

Although war expenses are being reduced just as rapidly as possible, Canada will require $1,500,000,000 during the next twelve months to pay the unpaid costs of victory. The proceeds of the 9th Victory Loan will be used to help the men and women of our armed services to establish themselves in civilian life, and to provide the special training they need to equip them in their life's work; to pay gratuities, re-establishment credits and pensions; to help heal the wounds and mend the broken bodies of those in hospital; to assist in sweeping the seas clear of mines; to provide co-operation with our allies in freeing liberated lands from famine and disease; to pay our share of the billions spent in developing the atomic bomb; to support our army of occupation.

In this the first loan since victory has been achieved on all battle-fronts, you will be happy to do your full share. When the Victory Loan salesman calls, sign your name for victory.

Income Taxes Are Discussed At City Meet

Under the present income tax system, the government has a "pretty good job" on collection of wealth, an action some people have been asking for all through the war years, according to R. D. Thompson of the Edmonton income tax department who spoke to members of the South Edmonton Business Men's Association, at a meeting in Knox United Church Friday night.

Mr. Thompson, who has been with the department since 1928, said there have been some important changes due to the fact that people are earning more money these days. A total of 72 in the department has grown to 140.

Questions dealing with various problems that arise from income taxes and cause many headaches were answered with competence by Mr. Thompson.

Dr. J. D. Hawkins, chairman of the meeting, urged women present to form an auxiliary to the organization. He also said he had spoken, for the association, to Mayor John W. Fry regarding the organization's objection to gasoline "curb pumps" along Whyte avenue, which would add to congestion of traffic in that area.

One member stressed the need of a hall for the association and hinted at the possibility of procuring a prefabricated building.

Membership of the organization has reached an all-time high of 153 members. The next meeting, which candidates for the election will speak, is to be held Monday, Oct. 20, in Knox church basement.

Throughout Northern Alberta Monday approximately 1,200 salesmen will start work on selling Canada's greatest war loan—the North Victory Loan—a loan being raised to win the peace, and all are asked to "sign their names to victory" by purchasing to the limit of their capacity.

A quota of $425,000 has been set for the province, with the Edmonton quota at $7,100,000. Quotas have been set for all rural areas, and many of these, especially on the Edmonton city branch, have indicated to the central committee that they have increased the official quota on, in some cases by more than 50 per cent.

ALL IN READINESS

Officials at Edmonton headquarters stated Saturday that everything was in readiness for the opening of the campaign. The Edmonton drive will be opened with a breakfast meeting of salesmen, at which inspirational addresses will be given by the chairman of the Finance division of the loan.

"More than ever before it is imperative that the general public participate in this loan is the full extent of their financial resources. There is the great task of bringing back our victorious fighting men and women; there is the task of their rehabilitation and above all there is our obligation to the battle-wounded and maimed men who fought for us, and also our obligation to the dependents of those who died that we might live in freedom, a loan official said, as he appealed to Edmontonians and residents of Northern Alberta to "sign their names to victory."

Farmer Claims

Amazing Cures

MULL, Que. Oct. 20.—(CP)—Rev. J. J. MacGregor, parish priest of St. Camille's church at nearby Farnham, told a local paper yesterday that the healing of physical ills by William McCaffrey, 72-year-old Farnham farmer, was "no more to miracles than I have quakes in my archbishop's robes."

The priest was testifying during the hearing of McCaffrey's charge he practiced medicine illegally. The charge was laid following a complaint by the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Quebec.

Decision in the case was reserved for Oct. 26 to further study points of law involved.

Rev. MacGregor said the number of people who have reported cures after visiting McCaffrey was "astounding." In diagnosing the ills of people he said the farmer "never practices medicine," and that his mode of healing was through prayer.

In addition the farmer used applications of "holy oils" which he obtained from St. Joseph's Oratory, Montreal, and a crucifix, which contains "the relics of eight saints."

Japan Balloons

Going on Display

CALGARY, Oct. 20.—(CP)—Jap balloons of the type that menaced North America earlier this year, in addition to long range balloons, will be displayed in Alberta cities during the Ninth Victory Loan campaign.

Military District 12 announced that a number of balloons, details of which were closely guarded for years in regulations until late this summer, are now en route to Alberta from Ontario.

TORONTO, Oct. 20.—(CP)—Donald (Mickey) Macdonald, secretary for the second time, was convicted of the armed robbery of a $25,000 liquor shipment Dec. 13, 1942, and the kidnapping of George Blumberg, truck driver for Western Freight Line. Accused was remanded until Oct. 24 for sentence.

Technically, television is ready to go, he said.

Real Estate Association Holds 19th Annual Meet

The Edmonton Real Estate Association held its 19th annual meeting in the banquet room of the Corona hotel on Tuesday evening, Oct. 16. It was the best attended annual meeting in the long history of the association.

Amongst those present were former past presidents, J. Killeen, S. F. Farris, S. T. Lawrie, Stuart Darrach, L. Winterburn and Boyce Green. The chair was occupied by L. A. Weber, president, who after calling on the chairman of the various committees to submit their reports on their year's work, delivered his presidential address reviewing the various activities of the association.

One of the highlights during the year, was the successful convention held recently at Winnipeg of the national Canadian Association of Real Estate Boards with delegates present from cities all over Canada. It was attended by Delegates Andrew White, who was re-elected regional director of Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia; Sid Lawrie, whose paper on municipal taxation was highly commended by the president; Charles Purnell of Hamilton and John Thompson, manager of the city land department.

Boys Green, chairman of the nominating committee, presented his report for new officers and executives, which were carried by acclamation. The following were elected:

President, J. G. Kenwood, vice-president, Mark Cummins, secretary, J. W. Sherwin, executive, S. Farris, C. W. Johnston, W. L. Bleis, L. T. Meillon, John Meile and Luke Winterburn.

"Executed" Man Survived Four Japanese Bullets

OTTAWA, Oct. 20.—(CP)—Pte. Leslie Canivet, 24-year-old Ottawa soldier of Canada's Hong Kong garrison, told in an interview yesterday how he survived after being struck by four bullets from a Jap firing squad and was left for dead.

Pte. Canivet, who arrived home Thursday night, survived Chinese shelling from an English cruiser after the fall of Hong Kong and hid in the hills with 17 other Canadians. His jaw injured by shelling, he had nothing to eat and he was finally captured by the Japanese who thought him a spy. With other "supervisors" Canadians he was lined up before a firing squad.

Pte. Canivet said he was hit by four bullets and left for dead. But he wasn't. After the squad left he got up and decided to try to reach the Red Cross hospital at Hong Kong.

He made it and for eight months was given medical treatment in Bowen Road hospital by Canadian medical men.

Canadian Meat Going to French

OTTAWA, Oct. 20.—(CP)—Government sources said last night that 5,000,000 pounds of meat canned in Canada were being shipped to France as well as potatoes and hoes for farm work. Commenting on a Paris report that Canada was speeding meat deliveries, a spokesman said canned meat had become available sooner than expected and therefore was going overseas ahead of schedule. He understood the first shipment had already reached French ports.

MUSICAL PROGRAM

The musical part of the program was rendered by Miss Herneice McKelvey with several accompaniments by Mrs. Currie. Norman Winterburn gave a performance of the art of juggling of hands.

Norman Haworth, secretary-treasurer, presented his financial report showing a favorable balance on hand.

Boys Green, chairman of the nominating committee, presented his report for new officers and executives, which were carried by acclamation.

THAT LAZY MOUSE

GINKY had settled down and was enjoying life in the pint fruit jar which the Teenie Weenies used for a jail. The little people gave him two grains of corn and half a tumbler of water each day. Ginky was fond of good food but he'd rather live on two grains of corn a day than work for his own food. The Teenie Weenies were getting mighty tired of supporting the lazy mouse, but they couldn't get him to work for his board.

"If he won't work we should not let him stay in our jail," said the Sailor.

"If we let him out he'll begin stealing again," answered the Policeman. "If we keep him in jail we have to feed him, and so no matter what we do Ginky is going to get the better of the deal."

"We'll put him to work," said the General. "Tomorrow we must haul our corn home and there's no reason why that loafer can't pull the cart for us."

Ginky protested loudly when he was told that he was to be hitched to the Teenie Weenie cart. "I've a weak heart and it will be the last of me if I have to work," Ginky argued. "Besides, I promised my great-uncle that I'd never work and I always keep a promise."

Ginky squealed and fought like fury, but finally the Teenie Weenies managed to get the mouse harness onto him. He lay right down in the shafts when they hitched him to the cart, and it was only after threats to turn him over to Tompkins, the cat, that the Teenie Weenies were able to get the lazy mouse to pull the cart to the corn.

The TEENIE WEEENIES

BY WM. DONAHUE

The men loaded twelve Teenie Weenie bags of corn in the cart. Each bag held seven grains of corn, which made 84 grains. That was not a heavy load, but threats of Tompkins had to be used liberally before Ginky would pull it. Because he stopped and argued every few minutes, the Teenie Weenies were nearly tired out trying to make the mouse pull the cart. Finally Ginky stopped right in the middle of a mud puddle, and no threat of Tompkins would make the mouse pull.

The Cowboy unhitched him and the Teenie Weenie men had to wade into the mud and take off most of the corn in order to lighten the load so the cart could be pulled out by hand. They took Ginky back to jail and hired one of the respectable mice, who hauled 465 grains of corn without a single complaint. Ginky is now getting only one grain of corn a day for his meals and the Teenie Weenies are seriously considering putting the mouse out of their jail if he soon does not get hungry enough to leave willingly.
